WELCOME TO THE FIRST EDINBURGH INTERNATIONAL JAZZ FESTIVAL

For the first time jazz is featured in a big way during the Edinburgh Festival. We have directed the Jazz Festival mainly towards Traditional Jazz, although there is plenty of progressive and modern jazz being promoted in Edinburgh during the Festival so all tastes are catered for. And what a programme we have for you! The Oregon Jazz Band from the USA plays alongside L’Orphéon Celesta from Paris and European Jazz Champions, the Society Syncopators from Edinburgh. A total of about fourteen top traditional bands plus guests will be playing for four whole days from lunchtime to the wee small hours.

And what a beautiful setting, Edinburgh, perhaps the loveliest city in Europe and hot jazz played in specially chosen venues all over town. Much of it free!

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the various local businesses and friends who have generously donated equipment, assistance and finance and in particular Messrs Drybroughs, without whose financial sponsorship the Festival could not have taken place. Their help in providing venues, money for publicity and band expenses and their unfailing support with all kinds of help has really made this unique festival take off. They did not, as one rather uninformed journalist suggested, call the tune. Instead they encouraged us to chose the music we thought would provide the best entertainment and the most fun for all those who have come to Edinburgh to have a good time.

Well, have a good time at the Edinburgh Jazz Festival and make sure to return next year for even greater things.

We, the musicians, will certainly enjoy ourselves and we thank you and all of the enthusiasts who have given so much help during the preparation.

Yours sincerely,
Edinburgh Jazz Festival Committee
