WE INVITE YOU TO OUR 2015 EDITION.

With over 150 concerts you can explore the A-Z of jazz and blues –
- from afrobeat and beat-box to swing and trad
- from established stars, to young players set to drive jazz and blues into the future
- for serious listeners to first timers, for dancers and clubbers
- in a huge variety of places, including St Andrew Square

We have centenary events for Frank Sinatra and Willie Dixon; and red carpet nights with Joos Holland and George Benson.

Blues Music takes centre stage with a long list of top American musicians: Mud Morganfield, Lurrie Bell, Janiva Magness, Willie The Touch Hayes and Lil Ed and The Blues Imperials are all in town. With EXPO funding, our own blues heroes, Jed Potts and Sandy Tweeddale, have been roaming the highways and byways of the States, from San Francisco to Memphis and Mississippi and introduce us to a new generation of American blues, with invitations for Brandon Santini, Ben Rice and Mr Sipp. Check out Jed and Sandy’s travel diary on the website.

Other new names at the Festival include Ambrose Akinmusire, Melissa Aldana, New Orleans Swamp Donkeys, Somi, Songhoy Blues, Butterscotch, The Vampires and Briana Cowlishaw.

Scottish musicians continue making international connections at the Festival. HSK Trio collaborate with Cory Henry from Snarky Puppy; Kim Macari meets Enrico Zanisi; and Brian Kellock puts together a dream band featuring American stars Scott Hamilton and Warren Vaché.

You can boogie in the Grassmarket; be enthralled in the hip jazz club in the 17th century Tron Kirk; appreciate star names in the luxurious surrounds of Festival Theatre; enjoy the two grandiose Spiegeltents, or join the coolest underground party as the Cross The Tracks Weekender takes over Summerhall.

The Festival is stuffed with musical gems and great surprises. We urge you to take some time, explore the programme and check out something new.

Over 150 concerts in 10 days with over 1000 performers – Edinburgh’s Festival summer season starts right now.

“Edinburgh Jazz and Blues Festival has never been stronger. Last year we had record attendances, record sales and a feast of high quality music. 2015 looks set to be another record-breaker and we look forward to welcoming old and new friends. We have a great line-up with something for everyone and we are looking forward to seeing you over the ten days of the Festival”.

SINATRA CENTENARY CONCERT

FEATURING

CURTIS STIGERS
JACQUI DANKWORTH
TODD GORDON

FESTIVAL THEATRE, 8PM, £37.50, £30.50, £27.50 AND £24.50 (INCLUDING £2.50 BOOKING FEE).

In his centenary year, we celebrate the master craftsman of popular song.

For three decades, Sinatra had no peer in interpreting the classic American songbook and many of his versions are still the definitive ones. Think of “Come Fly With Me”, “I Get A Kick Out Of You”, “I’ve Got You Under My Skin”, “New York, New York”.

In a special Festival production, the current master of sophisticated song, Curtis Stigers honours Sinatra and his songs. Todd Gordon and Jacqui Dankworth will reprise their famous Frank ‘n’ Ella duets and the BBC Big Band bring their class to the whole evening.

FRIDAY 17 JULY

AJ BROWN
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
5.30-6.30PM, £10*

The brilliant young singer and saxophonist, AJ Brown draws comparisons with Michael Bublé and he’s a top notch interpreter of classic jazz too. First time in Edinburgh with his great band. “A shiny new star - great voice, great guy - catch him while you can!” (Clare Teal, BBC Radio 2).

ORIENTAL JAZZ BAND
HERIOTS RUGBY CLUB, 8-11PM, £12*, 14+
PRESENTED IN ASSOCIATION WITH EDINBURGH’S JUMP AND JIVE CLUB

Top New Orleans style jazz played by an exciting, young band from Holland. Bags of classic tunes, plenty of energy and a full dancefloor always guaranteed.

ANITA WARDELL
JAZZ BAR, 6-7.30PM, £10*, 14+

The world renowned Australian singer has one of the most attractive voices in jazz, great vocal agility and enormous emotional power, often vulnerable, personal and very honest, in ballads, scat, swingers.

THE VAMPIRES
THE JAZZ BAR, 8.30PM, £10*, 14+

Contemporary jazz that embraces tradition and a host of mostly warm and sunny music, from Africa, the Caribbean, and the southern States, and creates a feel-good vibe for head, heart and feet. And they’re from Sydney.

ANTONIO SANCHEZ
MIGRATION
FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £20*

Writer of the unique score for the Oscar winning film, “Birdman”, Pat Metheny’s drummer and sideman to the stars – from Chick Corea to Charlie Haden to Joshua Redman; Sanchez is the leader of Migration featuring saxophonist Seamus Blake, pianist John Escreet and bassist Matt Brewer.

One of the most exciting groups on the current New York scene, playing beautifully crafted contemporary jazz.

BRATISLAVA HOT SERENADERS
GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 8PM, £18*

A sensation last year, this band does “vintage” with extraordinary authenticity and pizazz. The 19-piece group play hot jazz and sweet dance music that transports audiences to a dance hall in the 1920s and 1930s. Led by the acclaimed trumpeter Juraj Bartoš and featuring brass, reeds, rhythm section, four violins, the “Serenaders Sisters” vocal trio and two male singers, they dazzle with their brilliant recreations. You’ll be bewitched!

JAM SESSION
THE JAZZ BAR, 11PM, £5*, 18+
The classic after hours blow.
NAOMI SHELTON AND THE GOSPEL QUEENS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 7.30-9PM, £20*

The real thing! Originally from Alabama, but living for many years in Brooklyn and a legend on the US soul and gospel scene, Naomi Shelton records for Daptone and tours with a band that oozes class and authenticity. This is the lady who belted out Otis Redding and Lou Rawls classics as resident singer at Brooklyn’s Night Cap Club in 1963. She’s been in the business of singing sanctified soul for 50 years. “A power-house performer who sings with a passionate Baptist fervor” (Mojo Magazine). Her raw, straight from the heart vocals, command attention with every heart-wrenching syllable.

DAVINA & THE VAGABONDS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 10-11.30PM, £16.50*

An instant Edinburgh favourite at last year’s Festival, singer/pianist, Davina Sowers, is back from Minneapolis, with her high-energy band, for another set of rocking blues, New Orleans charm, Memphis soul swagger and southern gospel. She might be compared to Fats Domino, Etta James or Amy Winehouse, but comparisons don’t suffice: Sowers is a true original.
THE GRASSMARKET
Saturday 18th July 1-4pm
FREE ENTRY
STANDING

The historic heart of Edinburgh becomes a mini New Orleans for the afternoon

In the Grassmarket a host of visiting and local musicians create non-stop entertainment and a party atmosphere. This year’s musical line up includes: Shreveport Rhythm, Brass Gumbo, Lights Out By Nine, James Brown Is Annie, Oriental Jazz Band.

Plus a singers stage featuring Edith Budge, Sue McHugh and Marty Waugh.

LADIES OF THE BLUES:
JANIVA MAGNESS
CONNIE LUSH BAND
DANA DIXON
ST. ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
1-4PM, £16*

Three distinctive female blues singers offer an afternoon of rocking and soulful sounds. First, Dana Dixon with her Texas, Chicago and west coast jump blues plus rockabilly and 50s r’n’b. Then the unforgettable voice of one of Britain’s foremost blues divas, Connie Lush. Top of the bill and making her Scottish debut is one of the true greats of the contemporary blues scene, Janiva Magness. A singer of raw power, emotional complexity and technical ability, beyond that of almost anybody working in blues music today. Exceptional.

TOMMY SMITH YOUTH JAZZ ORCHESTRA
FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO,
5.30-6.30PM, £10*

Tommy Smith directs a youth orchestra that stands against the best professional outfits and is packed with youthful exuberance, talent and excitement.
AMBROSE AKINMUSIRE QUARTET
ENRICO ZANISI TRIO

GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 8PM, £16*

Ambrose Akinmusire is one of the most exciting and striking figures on today’s jazz scene. “A thrilling young trumpeter with a unique spark” (The New Yorker). His band’s music is a “dramatically paced, surprise-packed and sometimes intense fusion of cliche-free solo exploits and collective improvising – an experience that was unmistakably American jazz, but which didn’t clone anything or anyone” (The Guardian). Zanisi is a new shooting star of European jazz, a pianist of extraordinary delicacy, combined with EST-like power.

SATURDAY 18 JULY

DAVINA AND THE VAGABONDS

ST. ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
8-9.30PM, £16.50*

One of the hottest tickets across the States, delivering rollicking, soulful blues and boogie-woogie, New Orleans jazz, 30s swing, juke joint music from sassy shouters to tear jerking ballads. From Fats Domino to Amy Whitehouse, Davina Sowers is a true original.

AJ BROWN

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
10.30PM-MIDNIGHT, £10*

The brilliant young singer and saxophonist, AJ Brown draws comparisons with Michael Bublé and he’s a top notch interpreter of classic jazz too. First time in Edinburgh with his great band. “A shiny new star - great voice, great guy - catch him while you can!”(Clare Teal, BBC Radio 2).

ROYAL SOUTHERN BROTHERHOOD
MR SIPP

QUEEN’S HALL, 8PM, £25, £20*

The blues-rock supergroup make their Festival debut. Their soul, funk and jam band roots, conjoins two southern USA music dynasties: vocalist, Cyril Neville and guitarist, Tyrone Vaughan, plus young blues guitar sensation, Bart Walker and award winning rhythm team of Charlie Wootton and Yonrico Scott. White-hot musicianship with incendiary guitar duels and soulful vocals.

In a sensational double bill Mr Sipp (“The Mississippi Blues Child”) delivers his soulful and gritty music combining guitar excellence and vocal power, he cries out Mississippi blues with every note he plays.
SATURDAY 18 JULY

BRIANA COWLISHAW

1ST THE JAZZ BAR, 6-7.30PM, £10*, 14+
Australian singer with a voice of melting charm. She can hypnotise with the beauty of her sound and the naturalness of her musicality. She’s smart, clever with lyrics and loves the simplicity of The Beatles as well as the sophistication of Cole Porter.

THE VAMPIRES

THE JAZZ BAR, 8.30PM, £10*, 14+
Contemporary jazz that embraces tradition and a host of mostly warm and sunny musics, from Africa, the Caribbean and down home Mississippi, creating a feel-good vibe for head, heart and feet. And they’re from Sydney.

JAM SESSION

THE JAZZ BAR, 11PM, £5*, 18+
The classic after hours blow.

WARREN VACHÉ & BRIAN KELLOCK DUO

FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £15*
The trumpeter and cornetist is one of a kind. No-one else today can play the classic jazz repertoire, the music of trumpeters from Louis Armstrong to Clifford Brown, with such love, passion and emotion. Pianist, Kellock is his match in keeping the music honest and playing brilliantly.

BRATISLAVA HOT SERENADERS

ST. ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 5.30-7PM, £16.50*
Hot dance music from the 1920s and 30s with the world’s most authentic period orchestra. The 19-piece group play hot jazz and sweet dance music that takes you to a mid-European dance hall of the time with immaculate period costume, a single microphone and a non-stop parade of tightly arranged pop tunes. Brass, reeds, rhythm section, four violins, the “Serenaders Sisters” vocal trio and two male singers – an unforgettable experience.

NOON-1PM, £8*
SHREVEPORT RHYTHM
Stylish, slick and musically sophisticated. The hot jazz group from Hamburg bring new life to 1920s classics, swing through the 30s and 40s and tear up the dance floor with jive classics.

1.30-2.30PM, £8*
DAN SHOUT – IN WITH A SHOUT
The tenor saxophonist is one of South Africa’s leading jazz musicians and the leader of a band that brings modern jazz and township music together in a sunny, upbeat and inspiring way.

3-4PM, £10*
ENRICO TOMASSO QUINTET
The hot trumpeter presents his Clark Terry/Bob Brookmeyer style band with trombonist, Ian Bareman. Classy 50s style jazz.

5.30-6.30PM, £10*
ORIENTAL JAZZ BAND
The perfect post Mardi Gras pick me up – this young six piece Dutch collective plays old style jazz from New Orleans as though it was fresh minted – with their own personal touches of early rock n’ roll and country music.

7.30PM-9PM, £12*
BANDAKADABRA
This is the crazy brass band from Torino who blend jazz, Balkan party music, Mediterranean folk melodies, blues, klezmer and anything else that crosses their minds into an exuberant and intoxicating mix that makes audiences all over Europe smile.

RUMBA DE BODAS
Swing, latin and upbeat ska from the young Italian group who wowed audiences last time here. Music to move you and guaranteed good vibes – infectious rhythms, sultry vocals, hot horns, sweet accordion.

EDINBURGH JAZZ FESTIVAL ORCHESTRA / ECHOES OF ELLINGTON

DUKE ELLINGTON 1945

“I’M BEGINNING TO SEE THE LIGHT”

QUEEN’S HALL, 8PM, TICKETS: £25, £20*

The immediate postwar era is a time of high excitement for the Ellington fan. Duke responded to the new world with a treasure-trove of new compositions; the re-working of older masterpieces; and a special response to the new bebop music. He had one of the greatest band line-ups of his long career. In this special co-production, directed by Ellington specialist, Pete Long, an all star group featuring the leading musicians from both bands play the music that thrilled audiences in 1945 and has even more power to thrill today.

LIL ED & THE BLUES IMPERIALS

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 10-11.30PM, £15*

“A bazooka assault of foot-stompin’ blues and slow-burnin’ knee-bucklers” (Chicago Sun-Times). Fiery, flamboyant hard-rocking blues out of Chicago. This is music to get parties going: incendiary slide guitar and rough, passionate singing from Lil Ed, with the Blues Imperials cooking like mad alongside him. For lovers of serious blues - and good time fun!

HSK TRIO WITH CORY HENRY

FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £10*

International keyboard sensation Cory Henry (Snarky Puppy etc) joins Trio HSK in a new collaboration. HSK (Rich Harrold, Ant Law, Richard Kass)’s language is a contemporary classical/jazz hybrid, injected with elements of hip-hop, breakcore and metal. Cory Henry plays a solo piano set and then brings his creativity to a special HSK project.

REMEMBERING ACKER BILK

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
NOON – 1PM, £12*

Edinburgh clarinettist and long time Acker Bilk fan, Hamish McGregor, gets together with Acker’s former band members, Enrico Tomasso and Ian Bateman, for a special one off show. The first of two concerts celebrating the clarinet master (see Sunday 26).
JOHN RAE EXPERIENCE + LEO BLANCO TRIO

Renowned for his stirring music, blending Scottish folk, swinging jazz and Mingus-like mayhem, drummer John Rae’s seven piece band premiere a new work commissioned by the Festival and WW100. The brilliant Venezuelan pianist, Blanco, plays latin jazz with passion and grace. “A phenomenon and a warmly engaging one” (The Guardian). He is joined by Mario Caribe (bass) and Alyn Cosker (drums).

SANDY EVANS & BRODIE JARVIE QUARTET

“Protean, ethereal … scintillating” (Downbeat), cutting edge Australian saxophonist, Sandy Evans, joins Brodie Jarvie one of Scotland’s most ambitious young composers for a special concert.

LAURA MACDONALD QT

The great alto saxophonist is back with new tunes and a supercharged young group Pete Johnstone (piano), Brodie Jarvie (bass) and Doug Hough (drums). This is contemporary jazz packed with melody, rhythmical charge and thrilling solo power.

BANDAKADABRA

Continuing the carnival atmosphere – the twelve Italian brass, reeds and drums players deliver party music from wild Balkan dances to traditional Mediterranean marches and Latino jazz. Uplifting.

BATCHELORES OF JAZZ WITH GUEST WARREN VACHÉ

Trombonist and singer, Dave Batchelor, runs one of the most entertaining traditional jazz bands in Scotland. Hamish McGregor (saxes/clarinet), Fraser Spiers (harmonica), Alastair MacDonald (banjo), Ronnie Rae (bass) and Ken Mathieson (drums), are joined by special guest, Warren Vaché (trumpet).

SHREVEPORT RHYTHM

Absolutely top class hot jazz and swing quartet from Hamburg play 1920s, 30s and 40s classics.

WARREN VACHÉ TRIO FT. JACOB FISCHER

Truly unique, inventive trumpet maestro, Warren Vaché, is the authority in making classic jazz tunes swing and he has a sophisticated partner in guitarist, Fischer.

MR SIPP

Real Mississippi blues in the house tonight. Voted the best new blues musician in the States last year. Guitarist/vocalist has a great band and a great show.

DAVINA & THE VAGABONDS

Evoking both Adele and Bessie Smith, the Minneapolis diva of jazz, blues and boogie, Davina, tells it like it is. Her barn-storming band make every concert feel special.
MELISSA ALDANA AND CRASH TRIO

KIM MACARI AND ENRICO ZANISI BAND

FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £15*

Saxophonist Aldana is one of the hottest tickets in New York jazz right now. “Jazz’s next tenor sax great” (Jazz Times). The first female instrumentalist to win the prestigious Thelonious Monk International Jazz Competition. Assured, attractive, intelligent, smart and always swinging – with Pablo Menares (bass) and Jochen Rueckert (drums).

The leading young trumpeter, Kim Macari, is a Fifer from Dunfermline, with a great post bop concept. She joins forces with the sensational young Roman pianist, Enrico Zanisi, to create a fusion of new European and New York jazz.
GABBY YOUNG & OTHER ANIMALS
ST. ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 7.30-9PM, £12.50*

Almost unclassifiable, Gabby’s unique perspective on the world around her is inspired as much by imagination as real events. She fronts a band who inhabit a magical musical fairground, which fuses globally-influenced folk, Balkan party music, jazz and swing as though in an aural antiques shop from the future, to produce what has been affectionately dubbed Circus Swing.

CEDRIC BURNSIDE PROJECT
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
5.30-6.30PM, £10*

Hard hitting blues from North Mississippi Hill country. The drummer/vocalist and guitarist, Trenton Ayers, are steeped in the traditions of the home of the blues and they bring new power and energy to this special music.

JAZZ BAR BIG BAND
THE JAZZ BAR, 8PM, £10 14+

Mainstays of the Edinburgh scene, this is the classic Monday night Big Band, where the best players in town come down for a blow. Great free spirited music kept in line by Erik Lars Hansen and Keith Edwards.

DOM AND THE IKOS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 10-11.30PM, £12*

Bringing the classic sound of New Orleans r’n’b and funk right into the 21st century. Dom’s celebrity followers are legion: from touring the world with Paloma Faith to endorsements from Jamie Cullum.
In the world of jazz royalty, Count Basie is king. From his Kansas City days in the 30s until his death in 1984, Basie’s trademark rhythm section pulse, contrasting brass soloists and his own spare, well-placed piano style were, for many, the very definition of the word “swing”. BBC Big Band drummer and arranger, Tom Gordon creates genuine excitement with his new all star seven-piece playing all Basie tunes in stylish new arrangements.

JIM MULLEN ORGAN TRIO WITH SPECIAL GUEST TOMMY SMITH

Arguably the finest jazz guitarist the UK has ever produced, “mellow, soulful guitar and legendary fluency” (Observer), gets into a groove with his Blue Note-inspired trio. Expect a hard swinging evening of melodic, blues drenched modern jazz and plenty fireworks as star saxophonist, Tommy Smith, joins the group for a very special one-off!

Three of the original AWB members - Hamish Stuart, Molly Duncan and Steve Ferrone – have a new band that will play AWB’s greatest hits and the celebrated 1976 album in full, for the first time ever! AWB fans have been waiting for this moment for a long time and they’ll hear a nine-piece band, with an enhanced horn section, as on the original album, plus all the great AWB classics.
NEW ORLEANS SWAMP DONKEYS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 7.30-9PM, £15*
With a grounding in the Big Easy grassroots music scene, playing local festivals and second lines, Swamp Donkeys feature the Louis Armstrong-sounding, soulful and sweet James Williams and the audience-wooing, banjo-strumming, song-writer extraordinaire Sam Friend. “Young devotees whose balance of spunk and funk keeps the heart of traditional jazz beating…”. (The New Yorker).

ALI AFFLECK AND COPPER CATS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
5.30-6.30PM, £10*
Energetic and lively vintage Jazz - a mix of Tin Pan Alley, the Great American Songbook standards and traditional New Orleans blues as sung by Bessie Smith, Mildred Bailey, Louis Armstrong and Ma Rainey from “stunningly expressive” (San Diego Union Tribune) singer Alison Affleck and her all star Edinburgh band.

THE SILVER PROJECT
THE JAZZ BAR, 8PM, £10* 14+
Tenor saxophonist, Nick Gould celebrates the music of Horace Silver, pianist and composer and heartbeat of the Blue Note label throughout its classic 1950’s and 1960s heyday.

CEDRIC BURNSIDE PROJECT
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
10-11.30PM, £10*
One of the most thrilling sounds on the current US blues scene, drummer and vocalist, Cedric, from Holly Springs, is steeped in the North Mississippi Hill Country blues tradition. Joined by electric guitarist, Trenton Ayers, they mine the blues roots of rock and roll, get into gospel and soul and generally create the funkiest blues you can hear.

TERRY HARMONICA BEAN
NOON-1PM, £6*
From Pontotoc, Mississippi, the guitarist, harmonica player and singer is the real deal. A true great of the blues tradition.

REMEMBERING CHET
1.30-2.30PM, £8*
A homage to one of the great icons of jazz with Colin Steele (trumpet), Iain Ewing (vocals) and Euan Stevenson (piano).

SWING 2015
3-4PM, £8*
John Russell’s long-running and hugely popular Django inspired gypsy jazz and swing quartet.

DAVID-JEAN BAPTISTE QT
5.30-6.30PM, £8*
Baptiste has been the leading modern jazz clarinetist in the UK for some time. Elegant, swinging, emotionally powerful music: “rich reverberating eloquence” (The Guardian).

SOMI
10-11.30PM, £10, 18+
Soulful and seductive American singer combining whimsical Sade-like songwriting, the pure essence of jazz and soul and the richness of her African heritage, in a unique distillation that is only Somi: “the earthy gutsiness of Nina Simone blended with the vocal beauty of Dianne Reeves” (Jazz Times).
SONGHOY BLUES

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 7.30-9PM, £18*

Charismatic vocalist, edgy guitarist, rock solid rhythm, hypnotic tunes that mesmerise audiences, it could be the Crawdaddy Club with the Rolling Stones on the stage in 1963. Downtown clubs and bars in Barkano, Mali is where to find Songhoy Blues – four musicians from the Songhoy ethnic group, marginalised in the contemporary world, fusing ancient Songhoy melodies and dance music with the contemporary African blues of Ali Farka Toure, with Jimi Hendrix and American blues in the background.

West African pop and bluesy riffs; songs packed with climatic energy; hypnotic, spiritual and deep rooted. A very hot band.

COLIN STEELE QUINTET

GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 8.30PM, £15*

Ear-catching melodies and sumptuous Celtic-tinged music that is “beautifully conceived, mellow and melodic” (The Observer). Playing new music, trumpeter Colin Steele’s acclaimed quintet features Michael Buckley (saxophone), Dave Milligan (piano), Calum Gourlay (bass) and Stu Ritchie (drums).

STEFAN GROSSMAN

GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 6PM-7.30PM, £12*

He learned directly from the masters and he’s one of the great players of ragtime guitar, country blues guitar, finger-picking guitar and has influenced acoustic guitarists all over the world. He’s played with Rev Gary Davis, Bert Jansch, Eric Clapton... A very rare solo show.
ORKESTRA DEL SOL

1ST  ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 10-11.30PM £12*

Amazingly, this is the legendary Edinburgh band’s Jazz Festival debut. Swaggering, exuberant, global brass band music, played with riotous energy. The nine-piece mix ska, porro, calypso, klezmer and funk into a “living, breathing, polka-ing, pogo-ing honk step for the 21st century”. “Utterly captivating” (Songlines), “unashamedly fun” (The List).

TRIO RED WITH DAVID GREIG

FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £15*

“Riveting... complex, twisting, percussion powered episodes are played like a rougher, brawling Brad Mehldau” (The Guardian). Tom Bancroft’s multinational band features Tom Cawley (piano) and Furio di Castri (bass). In a world premiere collaboration, acclaimed poet and playwright, David Greig, will write poetry, inspired by the music, live on screen during the performance. (Poetry may contain adult content).

EAST WEST

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT 5.30-6.30PM, £10*

In 1960s Edinburgh, a young blues band shone out. Not surprising, because they featured a guitar player who would become one of the most respected and sought after guitarists in the industry, Ian Bairnson. Just for tonight Bairnson; vocalist, Jimmy Nellis and bassist, Kenny Ellis reform the band.

OLE SEIMITZ BAND

1ST  JAZZ BAR, 8PM, £10*, 14+

The German drummer brought his band to Edinburgh last winter and knocked everyone out. Terrific swing, great groove, loads of energy and detail and a really tight, focused quartet featuring the big tenor sax sound of Max von Mosch.
IAIN HUNTER
ME AND MY GIRL

WITH SPECIAL GUEST: GEORGINA JACKSON AND THE ELIOT MURRAY BIG BAND

QUEEN’S HALL, 8PM, £20, £15*

Iain Hunter is the classiest crooner in Scotland and he loves the great songbook tunes about love and romance and girls. Following in the footsteps of Bobby Darin, Matt Monro, Nat King Cole, Frank Sinatra and Michael Bublé, he’ll sing a host of great songs about ladies and feature one of his favourites, Georgina Jackson. They’ll be accompanied by a first-class band – led by Eliot Murray – packed with Scotland’s top players.

MCCRARY SISTERS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 7.30-9PM, £16.50

The new wave of American gospel, but Ann, Deborah, Regina and Alfreda McCrary have deep roots: their dad was the Rev Samuel McCrary, who sang with perhaps the best known gospel group of all time, the Fairfield Four. They have worked with everyone from Bob Dylan and Stevie Wonder, to Dr John and Jackson Browne. “Their close-harmony vocals switch effortlessly between gospel, soul and foot-stomping r’n’b. Exuberant and classy” (The Guardian).

DAVID PATRICK OCTET
THE RITE OF SPRING

FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £12.50

David Patrick’s new project takes Stavinsky’s masterwork “The Rite Of Spring” as the starting point for a five-movement suite. Rob Adams, in The Herald said: “Patrick channels this orchestral masterpiece into a genuinely exciting piece. There were people on their feet after the slamming finale”. “Exhilarating... a brash and brilliant homage” (The Scotsman).

BILL SALMOND’S
LOUISIANA RAGTIME BAND

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
5.30-6.30PM, £10*

Step back to the early 1920s, to the birthplace of jazz: to the music of the bars and dance halls of New Orleans: Louis, Jelly Roll Morton, King Oliver. Swinging sounds delivered with real conviction, spirit and passion from this hugely popular Edinburgh group.
TROKER

ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 10-11.30PM, £15

Mexican band Troker are a powerhouse explosion of a jazz band. Rock energy, hip hop and funk grooves and a flavour of Mariachi. They’ve stormed Glastonbury for the last two years. "Noisy, Chaotic, Sprawling, Messy and altogether wonderful" (All About Jazz). "Think Zappa meets Hermeto Pascoal" (Downbeat). First time in Scotland!

PAUL TOWNDROW & RYAN QUIGLEY

CHARLIE PARKER WITH STRINGS / CLIFFORD BROWN WITH STRINGS

GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 8PM, £15

In a very special event, saxophonist, Paul Towndrow and trumpeter, Ryan Quigley, play the music that Parker and Brown made with strings for their late 40s/50s recordings, with a jazz rhythm section and an eleven piece chamber orchestra. “A certain 1950s romance, a classic-sounding elegance, the songs are timeless” (The Herald).

PAUL HARRISON – SUGARWORK

JAZZ BAR, 8PM, £10* 14+

Harnessing electronica to the melodic and rhythmic adventure of jazz in a thrillingly and utterly up to date way, keyboardist, Paul Harrison is joined by Stu Brown (drums), Graeme Stephen (guitar) and Phil Bancroft (sax).

10-10.45PM, £12* 18+

BUTTERSCOTCH

The sensation of Festivals the world over, her solo beatbox show knocks people out. While she beatboxes, she sings, plays piano or guitar and ranges across classical, jazz, hip hop and r’n’b. Amazing, intense, a real phenomenon.
FRIDAY 24 JULY

BLUES FROM CHICAGO:

MUD MORGANFIELD BAND
LURRIE BELL

FESTIVAL THEATRE, 8PM, £30, £22.50, £18.50 INCLUDING £2.50 BOOKING FEE

Chicago Blues sparked the British blues boom in the 60s – The Rolling Stones, Fleetwood Mac, John Mayall and hundreds more “rock” bands were inspired by the music – and it was Muddy Waters who personified Blues from Chicago. Muddy Waters’ eldest son can sound uncannily like his father and Mud Morganfield proved, last time at Festival Theatre, that the old songs can sound just as fresh, just as angry, as they were 50 years ago. The singer and harmonica player is back, in a double bill with another of Chicago’s famous sons, guitarist, Lurrie Bell, currently producing the best music of his life (voted 2014 Blues Guitarist of The Year and “Blues in My Soul”, the best Blues CD of the Year by “Living Blues”). He’ll have a band featuring legendary drummer, Willie “The Touch” Hayes. The best of Chicago Blues today!

Edinburgh Airport
ROSE ROOM
GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT, 8PM, £15*

The hottest ticket in Scotland right now! Gypsy jazz and swing, played by a band that combines brilliant musicianship with warm personality. Fronted by the “dazzling” fiddle playing and sophisticated singing of Seonaid Aitken, Rose Room recreate the excitement of Rive Gauche Paris in the 30s and 40s with Stephane Grappelli and Django Reinhardt. “Stupendous gypsy-jazz – a superb singer” (The Scotsman).

JOHN BURGESS BIG 5
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT 7.30-9PM, £10*

Burgess is the leading player in the renaissance of swinging jazz. A tenor saxophone player with a beautiful sound; and a clarinetist who can purr and excite in equal measure. His new, all-star band - Colin Steele (trumpet), Tom Kincaid (piano) andy Sharkey (bass) and Tom Gordon (drums) - plays the music that the Louis Armstrong All-Stars loved and 50s New Yorkers flocked to Eddie Condon’s to hear.

ZOE RAHMAN TRIO
FESTIVAL THEATRE STUDIO, 8PM, £15*

Vibrant and highly individual pianist and composer, Zoe’s super attractive music is deep rooted in jazz, but also reflects her classical training and her British/ Bengali heritage. The Mobo Winner has a sensational Trio with Alec Dankworth (bass) and Gene Calderazzo (drums).

LOUIS AND THE PRIMAS
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT 5.30-6.30PM, £8*

(INCLUDING £2.50 BOOKING FEE)

Singer, guitarist and one of the all time greats of smooth jazz and soul, George Benson, plays Edinburgh Jazz and Blues Festival for the first time.

In a career spanning five decades and over 30 albums, Benson established himself as a jazz guitarist of the highest order and then built a mainstream music career that has won him ten Grammy awards. With his soulful and passionate voice, he’s built a huge catalogue of classic hits, including “Give Me The Night”, “Breezin”, “Turn Your Love Around”, “In Your Eyes” and “Never Give Up On A Good Thing”. Recently, he’s hit the headlines again with his celebrated “Unforgettable” tribute to Nat King Cole.

Here’s a rare chance to hear a master of modern music, in the warm surrounds of Festival Theatre.
FRANK SINATRA: THE MAN AND HIS MUSIC
A MUSIC THEATRE SHOW
WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY DAVE BATCHELOR
GEORGE SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
8PM, £15*
From the creators of last year’s smash hit “Kaiser Bill Invented Jazz”, comes a new show based on Ol’ Blue Eyes, the greatest popular singer of the 20th century. An eight piece band and a rat pack of actors, with special effects and archive images, take you inside the troubled singer’s life; offer you new insights, dramas and performances of his music.

BEARDED GYPSY BAND

HAVANA SWING
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
8PM, £10*
“Happy, jaunty, feel-good jazz executed with great panache” (Herald). Inspired by the Parisian jazz of the 1930s and Django Reinhardt’s Hot Club, Havana Swing is a very tight quartet playing lightning solos and subtle harmonies with energy passion and charm... and a little latin flavour.

SUNDAY BLUES AFTERNOON
JENSEN INTERCEPTORS, BEN RICE, MORELAND & ARBUCKLE
ST ANDREW SQUARE, SPIEGELTENT
1-4PM, £16*
Three great bands kicked off by the ever popular Jensen Interceptors, fronted by harmonica player and vocalist, Gary Martin. Guitarist and singer, Ben Rice, from Portland, Oregon is a young man making big news in the States with his twisting, soulful, west coast blues.

From Wichita, the blues-rooted rock of guitarist, Aaron Moreland and harpist/vocalist, Dustin Arbuckle have forged a huge reputation across the States. The band has a relentless and haunting sound that picks up on delta blues, vintage rock, jam band and hosts of other southern/Midwest roots sounds. “Explosive” (Get Ready To Rock).

MICHAL MILCZAREK TRIO
JAZZ BAR, 8PM, £10* 14+
Guitarist, Milczarek leads an exciting rock-jazz power Trio that might have listened to Wayne Krantz and Allan Holdsworth, but has a distinct sound of its own. UK debut.

12 NOON-1PM, £10*
